

VOLUME XXXVI—NUMBER 192

—Quill, in reading the Auditor's charge of twenty-eight hundred dollars for photographs of members of the city government, exclaimed, in a moment of passion, "blast their pictures."

—[Post.]

—The adage that those who are born to be hanged can never be drowned is hardly safe to credit at Long Branch, as the hemp cord is often represented there by the undertow.

—[N.Y. Tel.]

—A ticket-of-leave man recently ran away with the ship's daughter. His

—A man at the West who has been arrested for beating his wife is very indignant and claims that there is no law that will warrant such an invasion of his domestic rights.

—A new floating hotel under the auspices of an Episcopal society has been located at one of the New York docks, and will be formally opened in September.

—The latest report of the Secretary of the

- Col. Ryan wants to come back on condition of not dying for the cause.
- The chess-players of New York want another tournament.
- A young daughter of Gen. Reynolds died at Annapolis, Tenn., last month.
- Large number of northern merchants are investing in Georgia lands.
- Senator Hendrick is slumping in California.

—Thirty counterfeit pieces cash. In Mfg. art found —White gloves and bouquets are the murder arms of the Broadway policemen.

—The American firm—the chopper in the Maine woods.

—Just at this season Rhode Island becomes regularly exhibited on a clam worth.

- The Spanish and Indians are evidently armaments they were let off.
- Buffalo means to head off the coal combination, just as buffalo do everything.
- There is only one Protestant place of worship in New Mexico.
- A negro one hundred and nineteen years old is Kentucky's latest claim to re-embodiment.
- An Alabama eloquent ignorance of the difference between Mt. sub. and sub. Mt. bi-m., made Mr. Plackett a widower.

--U. G. is becoming ill. He called a telephonist to his room now, "organizing" with in the most prominent manner.
--[Telegram.]
--Gen. Breckinridge has settled down at Lexington, Ky., to practice law, and already has some business.
--Mr. Ann Stephens has contrived to write a series of American Historical Novels on the Multitude, plan.
--Not long ago two men had a duel near noon. They popped at each other with —Nature has made a stark or prohibitory law in Massachusetts for Arizona. Three out of four of this lot are desert there really.

—The President appoints Judges Deputy to the Chief Justice alone. He doesn't appoint a relative or a friend to try-D. N.

—A citizen writes to the N. Y. Sun that the rate in the Tomb have a way of freeing the prisoners' undershirts.

—The Minnesota tornado took a lady

One of the California papers objects to giving money for telegraph dispatches on the ground that the companies monopolize electricity which like oxygen, ought to be free to the multitude.

A city of Iowa is complimented by a neighboring town for having "done the right thing" for its many railroads, as any other place of its magnitude is limited "that is the only kind of work done."

A little makes with forty-two raps lately killed in the trenches, accord-a local paper which adds that "for weeks visions he terrified the whole country
th his noise at night."

Last week a new building to St. Paul, town, fell with a great crash, the rain during undermined its foundation. The did not find it stronger than the one it was also demol- shed in a similar way.

Philadelphia has shipped 17,754,470
look of petroleum during the present ar.

Mixing calves of fertility to animals
Rulladolph, and brings a fine of $10.
Twelve distinct rulladolphs are in course of construction in Illinois.
-A circus company was arrested at Oakville, Pennsylvania, for travelling Sunday.
-Kumins City is to have a wholesale tea store, with stock imported direct from China.
-A line of stage to be established in

The Order of Freemasons have called a meeting of all Masters, to take place Monday, December 3, this year.

One of the London hospitals, situated for the poor, threatens an injunction against the latter because the orchestral performing injures the health of the patients.

There is a recent bequest, by a rich
English chess-player, of $100,000 for operations at the Crystal Palace on Sunday, and also to the society against a State revenue.

A hungry Paris bore tried to make a meal of the Elysium, dyed straw color, of a woman who sat in a carriage in front of him
the Bois de Boulogne.

The Sultan has directed a well-known of English sailors to supply livery, of European fashion to the servants who are sent on Eugenie when she makes her first tour.

[illegible]

Order of Pioneers C. M. P. Temperance Com.
 Da. J. B. DEMKANTIN, Cairns;
 J. S. KEMMILL, Bangor;
 Mrs. SMITH BAKER, Ureah;
 Mrs. L. MOSEB, Pirmouth;
 H. D. FARTER, (Kainden);
 J. D. BAKER, (Voss);
 J. BDDY, (Munch);
 WALTER BUNTER, (Hewen);
 NATHAN ROBERTS, (Dexter);
 G. W. CHASE, (Harmon).

dilaw2un

See & Woman

neither column, picking grapes for Saks's (it is an admirable article, used in hospitals for the first class families in Paris, London and others, in preference to European and California ones. June 12, 1904, Market 17

Fans, Fans, Fans.
 GOOD ASSORTMENT has received at 12 1/2 Smith's Block.

